1 BFC/VOGUE DESIGNER FASHION FUND 2015

The winner of this year's BFC/Vogue Designer Fashion Fund has just been announced as Mary Katrantzou. The London based designer, who has done a collaboration with Topshop, is well known for her vivid prints and graphic designs. The designer will gain a 12 month period of mentorship and a £200,000 grant. Congratulations from all at En Vie!

2 BEYONCÉ'S SHOES

Here at En Vie we are all incredibly excited by the recent announcement that Giuseppe Zanotti and Beyoncé Knowles have teamed up to design a shoe which will be released in just a couple of weeks! Obviously this is no ballet flat we're talking about here, according to sources the shoe will be an ultra-thick platform with a stiletto heel. Beyoncé has had a huge input, with Zanotti stating to Forbes that she 'has very clear ideas - she knows exactly what she wants.' So if you want to feel like Beyoncé put on Crazy In Love, strap on this fabulous sounding sandal and shake that booty!

3 BLONDES HAVE MORE FUN

It would appear that Kim Kardashian has started to believe the age-old adage that blondes have more fun quite literally as she has bleached her hair a peroxide blonde. Whilst she looks stunning, one has to wonder what this is doing to her hair as she has already bleached it 3 times in 3 weeks? Will Kim be able to put up with the high maintenance that a bleached blonde do requires? Well, she's pretty high maintenance with her looks in general, so probably. But could you? Has she inspired you to go all out bleach blonde this spring?

4 COACHELLA

The annual fashionista festival, Coachella, is nearly upon us once again. This festival is the perfect place to show off your bohemian or rock chick credentials with celebrities, models and normal festival goers putting on a good show for each camp. So will your spring wardrobe contain some Coachella inspired pieces? The savvy fashionista will use Coachella to spy what's going to be hot come the summer music festival scene, so keep your eyes out and ears to the ground. The next big thing could be just around the corner.

1. mini candy

Looking for a new bag? The new Micro Peekaboos by Fendi are to die for. The Peekaboo, a Fendi favourite, is now available in miniature and a host of rainbow colours. Chose any shade to jazz up your spring wardrobe. They're the perfect size for phone, wallet and lipstick.

Spring is definitely here,

so a wardrobe update is definitely needed. Look no further for the perfect pieces to brighten up your wardrobe.

2. KHAKI JUMPSUIT

A new favourite of fashionistas the world over, the jumpsuit is an annual favourite. This time round you want a casual suit in a khaki colour. This can be dressed down with gladiator flats or dressed up with strappy sandals and gold accessories. Either way you'll be leader of the fash pack with one of these.

3. RIHANNA'S SUNGLASSES

Fancy some celebrity worth sunglasses but can't afford the designer price tag? Well despair no more, the latest label with a cult following, including Rihanna, is Le Specs. They have done a collaboration with Adam Selman. He's the designer behind Rihanna's jewelled and see-through dress she wore to the 2014 Council of Fashion Designers Awards.

The cat-eye shaped lenses come in a variety of bold colours including red, gold and black. And at £69 a pair, these beauties are too a good a deal to pass up! Get your pair here www.lespecs.com.

4. Bum Bag Update

Whilst we at En Vie may well own a leather and studded 80s bum bag, we understand the 80s is not for everyone, so this latest take on this practical staple of all middle-aged tourists the world over is a step in the minimal, flattering direction. Think more a small coin purse attached to a belt. Perfect for all those summer festivals wear as a waist cincher with a floral frock, or highlight your waits by adding some to your high waisted shorts and peasant blouse combo. Failing that why not try adding one to your staple jeans and t-shirt combo.

5. MARY JANE

Looking for a new comfortable yet stylish work shoe or an on trend alternative to strappy sandals? Then a Mary Jane heel, as seen at Prada, ASOS and Dorothy Perkins is just what you need. They are comfortable and look great with minis, midis or even ankle grazing trousers. These spring staples come in every shade imaginable, from black to turquoise to silver. Grab a pair today to add a polished, ladylike element to any outfit.

6. FLOWER POWER

Excited by Spring? Then why not show it on your ears. Giant petal and flower earrings were seen on the catwalk at Miu Miu and can now be found all over the high street. Look for giant jewelled flowers in muted pinks or vibrant oranges to perk up any outfit and add a hint of spring.

“... it's a lovely way to add more colour to any make up routine.”

Concerning makeup, one element should be highlighted on the face, whether it is eyes, lips, or flawless skin. We can always appreciate a fresh face, with earthy tones that highlight a woman's features. Paired with bold nails, has a glamorous simplicity to it. It is ideal for the ladies out there who a feminine look without too much maintenance. A flawless finish and minimal eyes play up natural beauty while keeping it elegant.

On the other hand, if you like to incorporate bold colours into your makeup routine, try streaks of butterfly bright eye shadow, with a little mascara or edgy cat-eyes. This is a great pick-me-up whether you love sporting jewel-tones on a regular basis, or you're a gal who clutches her browns and creams close. The wonderful thing about this trend is even if you go all out or pat some colour to enhance your eyes, it's a lovely way to add more colour to any make up routine.

Speaking of colour, have we talked about one specific area of the face yet? We all seem to go crazy for that sun-kissed bronzed look, but I think we all underestimate the power a pink glow gives. Yes, we are talking about blush. Mauve, pink, red, orange; varying in shade but all giving the same pinched-cheeks effect that we so admire.

What else gives you a cuter, youthful look? That's right! Pink lips. When you feel like your makeup isn't doing you justice that day, or there isn't enough oomph in your look, this fun trend is something that we shouldn't be afraid to embrace. A lovely pink lip whether petal pink, Barbie pink, rose tinted or so many other shades make anyone happy and adds that something special to your makeup.

You know what I want
You know what I need
Why don't you just
Give it to me?

You say that you will
It won't be too long
But days turn into years
Smiles to tears

Sands of time
Slip through my fingers
Anticipation
Drowns me as you linger

Breathe in Breathe out
Up high
Down low

Tick tock
On lock
Get set
Ready go

Taking your time
As if it's on your side
Taking me for granted
Off on your joy ride

”Playing with light and shadow, Yanagino’s portraits capture the personality and raw feeling of each subject.“

Flowing water. A young woman’s blouse clings to her: wet, heavy, and cool. Summer heat. The low afternoon sun. Tiny hairs framing her face in a fleeting breeze catch the sunlight. Her face remains forever intense and strong in a single moment in time when the photographer pushed the shutter button. Perhaps a second before, she was smiling. Or the wind died down. Or perhaps a cloud blocked out the sun. But in this photograph, a perfect single moment has been captured for eternity. It cannot and will never be reproduced. For that is the beauty of photography.

As all artists know, light and shadow are crucial for creating a beautiful image. For photographer Yasunari Yanagino, the balance of these elements seems to come naturally. Playing with light and shadow, Yanagino’s portraits capture the personality and raw feeling of each subject. Originally Yanagino wanted to become a painter, but he just couldn’t get into the design aspect of it.

One fateful day, his wife took him to view a Jeanloup Sieff exhibit. Sieff’s powerful black and white photos inspired Yanagino, sparking his interest in photography and his path to a career as a photographer at the age of 22. After a briefly studying in New York at the ICP (International Center of Photography), Yanagino returned to Japan to continue his journey in photography. Yanagino is currently working on setting up his own studio in Osaka. Although most of his jobs recently are wedding photography, he enjoys taking photos in his own style in his free time. Whether in the studio or outdoors, Yanagino’s photos are a style of his own.

EIGHT HOUR STUDIO THE DAWN & DUSK COLLECTIONS

Text / ERICA VAN NOY

Photography / EIGHT HOUR STUDIO - WWW.EIGHTHOURSTUDIO.COM

We are often reminded about the importance of sleep, and yet we constantly ignore the endless supply of advice.

Sleepwear is one of those elements in fashion that is often overlooked. Comfort is of the utmost importance. Unwinding after a day at work in our hectic world is difficult. We don't have the time for an elaborate relaxation routine.

Wearing sleepwear that is comfortable and luxurious quickens the relaxing and encourages a generally tranquil mindset, allowing us to be more productive. Eight Hour Studio combines comfort and hand wood block printing with organic, satin finish cotton, creating luxurious sleepwear that is anything but ordinary. Their inspiration for their designs originates from traditional Indian woodblock printing methods with an added western flair.

Founder of the company, Sonia Padam and her husband dreamed of an enterprise in which their multicultural heritage was echoed. Based in the UK, they were born in Zambia and India then grew up in Zambia, the UK and Australia.

Eight Hour Studio considers a balanced day one that is divided into eight hours of working, resting and playing.

While their initial collection focuses on the resting element, they aspire to create collections centered around work and play as well. Using socially responsible and environmentally aware partners they have created an enterprise that highlights the company's high standards for quality.

Conscious fashion is an ever-growing concern and each time a company makes the choice to be aware, the consumer then becomes aware. The ripple effect will affect generations to come in such a positive way. While conscious fashion usually includes a staggering price tag, Eight Hour Studio provides a very reasonable price range with artisan quality. These pajamas are serene and make you feel like you are on holiday. Keep a watchful eye on this up and coming company. They are definitely on the rise.

The line snaked around the block. Although it was pouring rain and freezing, girls were sporting mini-skirts and short denim shorts sans tights, all in the name of fashion! The doors opened and the audience poured into the building. Attendees were literally climbing over chairs to get the best seats. The room abuzz, the lights dimmed and the stage lit up with brilliant LED lights and booming music. This Kobe Collection's theme was "Light Up, Town Girl," and the event was indeed bright and youthful.

For those of you who have never heard of the event, Kobe Collection features ready-to-wear casual fashion for young women. The opening brand, RICH, featured romantic floral prints, cutout lace, pastels, chiffon, and fresh floral hair decorations. Other brands such as VICKY and Mercury Duo also kept the pastel theme, adding stripes to the mix. Across all brands, knee-length hemlines and A-line 50s inspired skirts were popular items. The show was like an ode to fashion icon Audrey Hepburn, featuring A-line skirts, crisp blouses, chic sundresses, and heels with socks. Straw hats were also prominent, especially panama and boater hats.

In a totally different stream, there were brands

Kawi Jamele and BOY LONDON playing with the 90's inspired grunge/athletic style, bringing to the stage 90's staples like sweat pants, graphic printed tees, choker necklaces, and the iconic Lennon-inspired sunglasses. In addition to multiple brands' fashion shows, the event also had a variety of booths: gel nails, hair styling, make-up advice and more. ## ARIES MARCH 21 - APRIL 19

Since the sun moved into your sign life has been good. You are strong, you shine, your libido roars, love is seeking you out, and you are getting your way. Enjoy this time but be sure to relax and take it easy around the time of the lunar eclipse on the 4th.

CANCER JUNE 21 - JULY 22

Your career will take a back burner this month as your 12th house of spirituality comes to the fore. The solar eclipse on 20th April makes sure you are 'in the mood' for spiritual breakthroughs that will bring change and pleasure in equal measures.

TAURUS APRIL 20 - MAY 20

The lunar and solar eclipses shake everyone up a bit this month – but not you Taurus! However there is the possibility of some near miss or near-death experience, if not you, then with someone close to you. But no need to worry, it will just get things into perspective for the coming months.

LEO JULY 23 - AUGUST 22

The eclipses this month will help to bring your hopes and wishes to fruition. However, be careful what you wish for, especially where friendships are concerned, as this is a testing time that could well last into next month if problems are not resolved.

GEMINI MAY 21 - JUNE 20

You, and only you, can decide your path of greatest happiness. This month you will be able to have your way and make desired breakthroughs in all areas, especially around the 19th, when your spirituality becomes powerful leading to changes that will become apparent next month. It's an excellent time for foreign travel.

VIRGO AUGUST 23 - SEPTEMBER 22

Your eighth house is strong and the focus is on transformation and rebirth. This is an optimum time for detoxing all areas of your life. Try a new diet, change your job, move house. It won't be easy; the process of change never is, but the end result will be wonderful.

LIBRA SEPTEMBER 23 - OCTOBER 22

Despite two eclipses this month, your belief system and faith will remain unshaken as many things you considered permanent in your life are subjected to dramatic changes. Best to postpone any travel plans and stay close to home for the time being.

CAPRICORN DECEMBER 22 - JANUARY 19

The lunar eclipse on the 4th brings about a testing time for friendships and relationships. There could be dramas and life-changing experiences in the lives of those close to you, so put career and work on hold and devote your time to home and family this month.

SCORPIO OCTOBER 23 - NOVEMBER 21

The lunar eclipse on the 4th will affect you strongly, so take time out, be gentle with yourself and keep a low profile while you redefine key areas of your life. Love is good and there is a good chance you will meet people with whom marriage seems a possibility.

AQUARIUS JANUARY 20 - FEBRUARY 18

Although the effect of the solar and lunar eclipses this month will be generally benign, you will experience a testing time in the area of friendships and love. Patience is the key. Concentrate on the happiness that is around you and learn to play a little.

SAGITTARIUS NOVEMBER 22 - DECEMBER 21

The lunar eclipse in Sagittarius will force you to redefine your image and how you are seen by the world. Not a great time for travel, so take some time at home and go through your wardrobe, discarding anything that is no longer relevant to you and maybe invest in some new outfits.

PISCES FEBRUARY 19 - MARCH 20

There is turbulence in the world, enhanced by the lunar eclipse, and, for you, foreign travel is best avoided this month. Instead focus on the home, family and your emotional wellbeing. You are in the 'behind the scenes' phase of your career and now is the time to prepare the inner psychological and emotional conditions for future success.
